Recognition of Remarkable Victims

Please join us for a talk by Terry Probyn, Mother of Jaycee Lee Dugard

Abducted in June of 1991 at the age of 11, Jaycee was held in captivity by her abductors for 18 years until August of 2009 when she and her daughters were rescued. Terry will share her experience of horror, helplessness and anguish that over time turned into hope, endurance and inspiration. She has dedicated her life to helping families in similar circumstances. Her work is a testimony of hope, faith and an undying effort for the rights of victims and their families.

Refreshments provided by Sutter Medical Center and St. Joseph Health System – Sonoma County

The National Crime Victims' Rights Week events are accessible to persons using wheelchairs and others with disabilities. Informational material is available in large print. Assistive listening devices, material in other alternative formats, American Sign Language interpreters and other accommodations will be made available upon request.
